1. What is this product?

Type

This product is an uncertificated security issued under Swiss law.

Objectives

Objective of the product is to provide you with a specified entitlement according to predefined conditions. The product has a fixed lifetime and will become due on the Maturity Date.

The possibilities for the redemption of the product are as follows:

- (i) If the Performance of the Underlying with the lowest Performance is higher than or equal to the Strike, you will receive on the Maturity Date a Redemption Amount in the Redemption Currency which is calculated as the product of (A) the Nominal Amount and (B) the sum of (a) the Minimum Redemption and (b) the product of (i) the Participation and (ii) the difference between the Performance and the Strike, in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{Nominal Amount} \times [\text{Minimum Redemption} + \text{Participation} \times (\text{Performance} - \text{Strike})]$$

The Performance is calculated as the Settlement Price of the Underlying with the lowest Performance divided by the Initial Price of the Underlying with the lowest Performance.

- (ii) If the Performance of the Underlying with the lowest Performance is lower than the Strike, you will receive on the Maturity Date a Redemption Amount (commercially rounded) which equals the product of the Nominal Amount and the Minimum Redemption. You will make a loss if the Redemption Amount is below the purchase price of the product.

The product is currency hedged at maturity, i.e. although the Settlement Price is determined in the Currency of the Underlyings, the amounts determined in the underlying currency will be converted 1:1 into the Redemption Currency (Quanto).

You will not have any rights of ownership (including voting rights, rights to receive dividends or other distributions or any other rights) with respect to the Underlyings.

The contents (other than the form) of, and in particular your rights under, this product are governed by Swiss law.

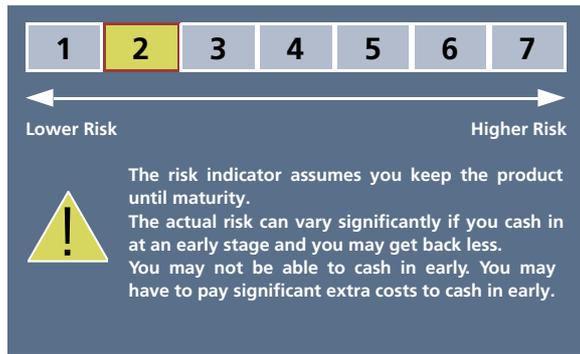

The Issuer is entitled to terminate the product with immediate effect, if an (extraordinary) termination event occurred. Examples of (extraordinary) termination events include the discontinuation of the determination/publication of the price of the Underlyings, or the occurrence of a change in law. In this case, the payable termination amount may possibly be significantly below the purchase price. You bear the risk of a total loss of your investment in the product. You also bear the risk that the product will be terminated at a time unfavourable to you, and you may only be able to reinvest the termination amount on less favourable terms.

Intended retail investor

The product is intended for retail clients who pursue the objective of general asset formation / asset optimization and have a medium-term (3 - 5 years) investment horizon. This product is a product for clients with advanced knowledge of and/or experience with financial products. The investor may bear losses (up to the total loss of the capital invested) and attaches no importance to a capital protection.

2. What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk Indicator

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as 2 out of 7, which is a low risk class.

This rates the potential losses from future performance at a low level, and poor market conditions are very unlikely to impact our capacity to pay you.

If the currency of the country where you purchase this product or the account to which payments on the product are credited differs from the currency of the product, be aware of currency risk. You will receive payments in a different currency, so the final return you will get depend on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above.

You are entitled to receive back at least 80% of your capital. Any amount over this, and any additional return, depends on future market performance and is uncertain.

However, this protection against future market performance will not apply if you cash-in before the Maturity Date.

If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

This table shows the money you could get back until the Maturity Date under different scenarios, assuming that you invest 10,000 CHF.

The scenarios shown illustrate how your investment could perform.

You can compare them with scenarios of other products.

The scenarios presented are an estimate of future performance based on evidence from the past on how the value of this investment varies, and are not an exact indicator. What you get will vary depending on how the market performs and how long you keep the product.

The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances, and it does not take into account the situation where we are not able to pay you.

This product cannot be cashed in. This means it is difficult to estimate how much you would get back if you cash in before the Maturity Date. You will either be unable to cash in early or you will have to pay high costs or make a large loss if you do so.

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

Market developments in the future cannot be accurately predicted. The scenarios shown are only an indication of some of the possible outcomes based on recent returns. Actual returns could be lower.

3. What happens if UBS AG, London Branch is unable to pay out?

You are exposed to the risk that the Issuer might be unable to fulfil its obligations in respect of the product – e.g. in the event of insolvency (inability to pay / over-indebtedness) or an administrative order of resolution measures. In case of a crisis of the Issuer such an order can also be issued by a resolution authority in the run-up to an insolvency proceeding. Thereby the resolution authority has extensive intervention powers. Among other things, it can reduce rights of the investors to zero, terminate the product or convert it into shares of the Issuer and suspend rights of the investors. A total loss of your capital invested is possible. The product is a debt instrument and as such is not covered by any deposit protection scheme.

4. What are the costs?

The Reduction in Yield (RIY) shows what impact the total costs you pay will have on the investment return you might get. The total costs take into account one-off, ongoing and incidental costs.

The amounts shown here are the cumulative costs of the product itself, for three different holding periods. The figures assume you invest 10,000 CHF. The figures are estimates and may change in the future.

Costs over time

The person selling you or advising you about this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs, and show you the impact that all costs will have on your investment over time.
